F.N.B. Corporation Finalizes Cleveland Expansion

Former Park View Federal Savings Branches Conduct Business as First National Bank

HERMITAGE, PA and SOLON OH, – October 15, 2013 – F.N.B. Corporation (NYSE: FNB), parent company of First National Bank of Pennsylvania, today announced that on October 12, 2013, it completed its merger with PVF Capital Corp. (PVFC), parent company of Park View Federal Savings Bank. As a result of the merger, First National Bank will operate a total of 29 banking offices in Ohio, including 18 in the greater Cleveland area. Prior to completing the merger, FNB obtained all required legal and regulatory approvals, and PVFC shareholders approved the transaction. Shares of PVF Capital Corp. will no longer be traded on the NASDAQ stock exchange.

Vincent J. Delie, Jr., President and CEO of F.N.B. Corporation, commented, “We look forward to serving our newest clients in the greater Cleveland area. We’re confident they will find value in the expertise of our financial professionals and the depth of our product set.”

In July, FNB announced plans to establish a regional headquarters at the 55 Public Square location in downtown Cleveland. The regional headquarters, which will include a full-service branch on the building’s first floor, is expected to open later this month. The Bank also announced recently that Boyd K. Pethel will serve as Market Executive and President of First National Bank’s Cleveland Region.

Customers in the Cleveland area now have access to the full range of First National Bank’s products and services at any of FNB’s more than 265 banking offices in Ohio, Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Maryland. Each banking office provides full-service financial solutions including retail and commercial banking services, wealth management, leasing, insurance and a complete suite of online and mobile banking options.
