First National Bank Promotes Director of Treasury Management
*Mark Sullivan Promoted to Executive Vice President

Hermitage, PA – September 16, 2010– First National Bank of Pennsylvania today announced the promotion of Mark D. Sullivan to Executive Vice President. As Director of Treasury Management, he is responsible for product development, customer service and sales of treasury management products to commercial and government clients in the Bank's Pennsylvania, Ohio and Florida markets. He reports to Vincent J. Delie, Jr., President of First National Bank and Chief Revenue Officer of F.N.B. Corporation.

"Mark provides great leadership across our organization and within our Treasury Management Division," notes Delie. "He is an innovative thinker, committed to creating tailored business solutions for our clients. His focus on service excellence is a natural reflection of First National Bank's commitment to the customer."

Sullivan joined First National Bank in 2007 as Senior Vice President and Director of Treasury Management. He previously served as Senior Vice President of Treasury Management for Sky Financial Group in Pittsburgh and has held senior and executive positions at National City and Mellon Bank. He has nearly thirty years of experience in financial services.

Sullivan earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Economics from Miami University of Ohio in Oxford, OH, and a Masters of Business Administration degree in Marketing and Finance from the University of Pittsburgh. He is a member of the Pittsburgh Association for Financial Professionals (PAFP).

Sullivan resides in Wexford, PA.
