COMMON QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. Why did Legacy Bank decide to merge with First National Bank ?

A. In looking at the economic environment, the future forecast of interest rates and the increasing costs to comply with regulations, it is in the best interest of the company to affiliate with a larger institution. By merging with First National Bank - because they are much larger - we can continue to operate as a community bank under the Legacy Bank name, with decisions made locally for our clients.

Q. What exactly is changing at Legacy Bank?

A. Most of the changes will be behind the scenes with "backroom" processing and other "systems" changes. The biggest change will be a new look with the introduction of a new logo. The same friendly people you've come to know and rely on will be here to serve you, and banking decisions will continue to be made locally with local interests in mind.

Q. Can I bank anywhere I see the new logo?

A. Yes! You can now bank at any branch office of Legacy Bank or First National Bank. There are 153 branch offices located throughout Pennsylvania and Ohio.

Q. Do I have to change my accounts, sign new forms and so forth?

A. No! There is no need for you to do anything.

Q. Will any of my account numbers change?

A. If there is a rare situation such as a duplication of account numbers, we may need to change your account number. If that would occur, we will notify you in advance to assure that there is no interruption in our service to you.

Q. Will there be enhancements to my Business Online Banking services?

A. Yes. You will be receiving a personalized call from a Treasury Management representative to discuss these changes.

Q. Will Legacy Bank be offering new banking accounts and services, such as the new remote scanning service for business customers?

A. Yes. Legacy Bank will be adding many new products and services including First Desktop Banker, which is an innovative service that permits companies to make deposits to their accounts from the convenience of their office. Feel free to contact any employee at any branch office of Legacy Bank or First National Bank for additional contact information.

Q. Will I have to order new checks or deposit slips?

A. Unless your account number changes, you will be able to continue using your current checks and deposit tickets after the merger. If you must purchase checks now, simply place your order as you have in the past. After the merger takes place, the checks that you order will carry our new look and logo.

Q. I have my payroll check direct deposited to the bank. Will that be affected?

A. Any checks, such as payroll and social security will continue to be direct deposited to your accounts as they have in the past; and automatic withdrawals will continue the same also.

Q. Can I use my existing Legacy Bank Debit Card?

A. No. You will be receiving a new Debit Card in the mail before the merger. You will be issued a new PIN, which you can change (after activating your card) at any of our branch ATM machines. Please refer to page 17 for more detailed questions and answers on Debit Cards.

Q. How do I access my account on the Internet?

A. If you are a current Internet Banking and/or Bill Pay customer, you will be receiving information and instructions the week of May 15, 2006, on how to access your account. Additional information is provided on pages 16 and 17 in regards to Internet Banking, Bill Pay and Telephone Banking.

Q. How is interest paid on my checking and savings accounts?

A. The compounding method used for checking and savings interest calculations is simple compounding. Interest will post monthly directly to your checking account and quarterly directly to your savings account.

Q. How will the merger with First National Bank affect my FDIC insurance coverage?

A. Your FDIC insurance coverage will be affected only if you have deposits at both Legacy Bank and First National Bank. If you do have accounts at both banks and the balances are in excess of $100,000 please contact a Personal Banker at your local branch office to review your FDIC coverage.

Q. Will my community bank's office hours change?

A. A few branches may be changing their hours to better serve our customers. Notifications have been posted in affected branches.

Q. When can I take advantage of the expanded line of products and services offered through any of the companies affiliated with First National Bank?

A. For the availability of a specific product or service, please check with any employee at any local branch office of Legacy Bank or First National Bank.

Q. Who can I speak with if I have any other questions regarding my accounts or the merger?

A. You can speak to any employee at any of our more than 153 community branch offices during regular banking hours. You may also call our Customer Service Center at 1-800-555-5455. Customer Service Representatives are available Monday-Friday 8:00 AM to 8:00 PM and Saturday 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM to help answer any questions or concerns you may have.

Q. What is First National Bank's policy on privacy?

A. At First National Bank, one of our most important responsibilities to you, our customer, is the safekeeping of the nonpublic personal confidential information you have given us. We recognize the sensitive nature of your personal financial information and take precautions to protect your privacy. When you entrust us with your financial information, you can be certain it will be used within our guidelines. Please refer to the table of contents of this booklet to find more information on First National Bank's Privacy Policy.

Q. What can I do to protect myself from becoming a victim of Phishing and Identity Theft scams?

A. First National Bank and Legacy Bank will never send email that requires you to enter personal information directly into the email. We will not send email threatening to close your account if you do not take the immediate action of providing personal information. We will also never ask you to reply to an email by sending personal information or asking you to enter your User ID, password or account numbers into an email or non-secure webpage. Please refer to the Privacy and Security section of our website at www.fnb-online.com for more detailed information on these subjects.

Affiliates

By sharing information among our group of affiliates, it is our intention to provide you with a full array of financial services specifically tailored to meet your needs or to save you time if you decide to open an account with one of our other companies. If you do not want us to share nonpublic information about you with our affiliates, you may opt out of those disclosures by checking the box on the form below. However, this limitation does not apply in certain circumstances, such as if you currently do business with one of our affiliates or if you ask to receive information or offers from them.

Third Parties

By sharing information with outside vendors, we may be able to introduce you to a new financial service not available through one of our affiliates. However, if you do not want us to share your information with third party vendors (other than that permitted by law, i.e. to process your transaction and prevent fraud), you may opt out of those disclosures by checking the box below.

Please note that you may still receive mailings if your information was permissibly shared prior to processing your opt out or if the mailings can be provided without violating your opt out request.

You should also know that even if you opt out of information disclosure, various federal laws allow us to share with our affiliates and other companies specific details about your transactions and experience with us, including information about your account balances or payment history.

If you desire us to continue to serve you in the manner in which you have become accustomed, and continue to share information as stated in this policy, you do not have to take any action.

You may contact us at any time to change your elections.

If you have previously opted out, you do not need to do so again. Please detach the bottom portion of this panel and mail to the address listed below to opt out of information disclosure.
