First National Bank Lauded by Pittsburgh Publications as a Top Workplace

PITTSBURGH, PA – November 3, 2014 – For a fourth consecutive year, two publications have recognized First National Bank as one of the best places to work. First National Bank, the largest subsidiary of F.N.B. Corporation (NYSE: FNB), placed first for Large Companies on the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette's list of "Pittsburgh's Top Workplaces 2014." First National Bank is also the winner of the "2014 Best Places to Work" by the Pittsburgh Business Times.

First National Bank earned recognition the previous three years on the Post-Gazette's list, but this is the first year First National Bank topped the list for Large Companies, defined as 400 or more employees in the region. First National Bank also placed highest in the "My Manager Helps Me Learn and Grow" category.

"This recognition and our employees' feedback confirm that FNB is an employer of choice," said Vincent J. Delie, Jr., President and CEO of F.N.B. Corporation and CEO of First National Bank. "Our employees thrive in a culture based upon collaboration and recognition. Ultimately this culture results in superior performance and a greater ability to serve our clients."

In July 2014, F.N.B. Corporation formally announced that it moved its headquarters to Pittsburgh. As the 16th largest public company based in Pittsburgh, First National Bank employs nearly 800 professionals at more than 84 locations in the Pittsburgh region, and more than 3,200 employees in over 280 locations across its four-state footprint. First National Bank holds the number 3 retail deposit market share in the Pittsburgh region.

Overall, 1,195 companies with at least 50 employees were invited to participate in the Post-Gazette survey. Results were independently gathered by WorkplaceDynamics, an organization that conducts more than 5,000 company surveys per year. Survey questions measure engagement, organizational health and satisfaction.

On the Pittsburgh Business Times list, First National Bank placed sixth among large companies, defined as having 151 or more employees. Last year, in its third year of recognition, FNB placed seventh. The Pittsburgh Business Times survey was administered by Quantum Workplace, a national organization that measures employee engagement of more than 5,000 employers per year.
