First National Bank Recognized As Leading Workplace

Two Publications Once Again Rank First National Bank among Top Workplaces

Pittsburgh, PA – October 25, 2012 – For a second consecutive year, First National Bank of Pennsylvania has been ranked among the region's top workplaces. First National Bank is considered one of "Pittsburgh's Top Workplaces 2012," according to The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette and as "One of the Best Places to Work in Western Pennsylvania 2012" by the Pittsburgh Business Times.

"The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette and Pittsburgh Business Times have recognized us as a great place to work - something our employees have known for a long time," said Vincent J. Delie, Jr., CEO of First National Bank. "We have an environment that fosters teamwork, leadership and innovation. Our employees can achieve great success in their careers, which in turn contributes to our success as a company."

Recognition in both rankings is based on feedback gathered from surveys completed by employees in the Bank's Pittsburgh region. Survey questions measure employee response to leadership, values that drive the organization, interactions with co-workers and attitude about the company's future.

In 2012, First National Bank was recognized as one of the inaugural National Top Workplaces, an aggregate list compiled from 30 Top Workplaces publishing partners to identify the best employers in the nation. FNB's inclusion was a result of being recognized as one of Pittsburgh's Top Workplaces in 2011 by the Pittsburgh Post Gazette.

With nearly 100 branches serving the greater Pittsburgh area, First National Bank holds the number three retail deposit market share rank in the Pittsburgh metropolitan statistical area. The Bank consistently supports local efforts that invest in the economic, cultural and educational soundness of the region.
