Ribbon Cutting Celebrates First National Bank's New Fox Chapel Office

Pittsburgh, PA – December 26, 2012 - First National Bank of Pennsylvania recently celebrated the opening of the Bank's new Fox Chapel location in 1195 Freeport Road in Pittsburgh.

The Fox Chapel Office provides a new and modern facility, excellent parking and leading-edge banking services to meet the needs of local residents and businesses. Leslie Harrison, Vice President, First National Bank, serves as Manager.

First National Bank, the fourth-largest Pennsylvania-headquartered bank, has more than 240 locations throughout Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia, with more than 90 of those locations serving the greater Pittsburgh area. In addition to providing a full range of traditional banking services, the new Fox Chapel Office, situated in the Township of O'Hara, also serves the needs of wealth management and private banking clientele. The 2,450 square foot location offers the convenience of drive thru service, a drive up ATM and easily accessible off-street parking.
