First National Bank Announces New Wyomissing Office
Full-Service Branch Will Enhance Client Convenience

Reading, PA – October 3, 2013 – First National Bank of Pennsylvania today announced plans to open a new banking office in Berks County. The full-service branch, which is slated to open on November 4, 2013, is conveniently located at 501 N. Wyomissing Boulevard in Wyomissing, PA.

According to Tony J. Sacco, Senior Vice President and Berks County Regional Executive for First National Bank, “FNB’s Wyomissing Office is evidence of our commitment to Berks County and the broader Eastern PA region. The Wyomissing location will enhance convenience for our existing customers and allow us to provide fully integrated banking, wealth management, insurance and private banking services to a broader base of clients.”

Since First National Bank entered Berks County with the opening of a regional office in May 2011, Sacco and his team have been successful in serving the needs of a growing commercial client base. Sacco has nearly 35 years of experience in corporate and commercial banking leadership roles throughout eastern Pennsylvania.

The Wyomissing Office will be managed by Fleetwood resident Stacey Persio, who has more than a decade of retail banking experience in Wyomissing. She will be responsible for developing new business, managing branch operations and leading customer service efforts.

FNB’s new Wyomissing Office is adjacent to the West Shore Bypass, approximately three miles from the Bank’s existing regional office. The 4,000 square foot full-service branch will offer drive thru, ATM, night depository and safe deposit services. Clients can also use First National Bank’s robust online and mobile banking services for added banking convenience.

First National Bank, founded in Pennsylvania nearly 150 years ago, is the fourth largest PA-headquartered bank.
