F.N.B. Corporation Announces Corporate Controller and Director of Corporate Finance

Industry Veterans Jim Dutey and Roy Halyama Add Nearly 50 Years of Experience to Finance Leadership Team

PITTSBURGH, PA – March 9, 2017 – F.N.B. Corporation (NYSE: FNB) today announced the addition of two experienced professionals to its Finance leadership team. Jim Dutey joined FNB as Senior Vice President and Corporate Controller. He will assume the role from Tim Rubritz, Corporate Controller and Principal Accounting Officer, who has announced his plans to retire this year and who will transition his responsibilities to Dutey. Additionally, Roy Halyama has been hired as Senior Vice President and Director of Corporate Finance.

Based in Pittsburgh, Dutey and Halyama report to Vincent J. Calabrese Jr., Chief Financial Officer of F.N.B. Corporation. Calabrese said, “Jim and Roy are significant additions to an already strong management team with their extensive experience. These hires are the latest examples of FNB’s ability to attract high-quality talent from larger organizations, and they will be instrumental in our continued growth.”

As Corporate Controller, Dutey will oversee and manage the Corporation’s financial reporting, accounting policies, accounting operations and income tax activities. He joins FNB with more than 20 years of accounting experience in the banking and financial services sectors, most recently as Assistant Corporate Controller for Huntington Bancshares, Inc. A Certified Public Accountant in the State of Ohio, Dutey received his Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from Marshall University.

Calabrese added, “We are extremely fortunate to have had Tim as a valuable member of FNB’s leadership team for 30 years, including his time with Parkvale Bank, and we wish him well in his retirement. The organization has benefitted significantly from his extensive experience and exceptional qualities as a leader and mentor, and I am confident that he will be a key contributor to Jim’s success as he continues to serve as an advisor throughout the transition.”

In his new role as Director of Corporate Finance, Halyama is responsible for Investor Relations as well as for corporate and divisional Finance functions for F.N.B. Corporation and its affiliates. With more than 25 years of financial services experience, Halyama most recently served as Director of PNC Capital Finance, a division of The PNC Financial Services Group, Inc. Previously, he served in a number of capacities in his more than nine years with PNC, including Investor Relations, Enterprise Performance Analysis and other Finance areas. He earned both his bachelor’s degree in Accounting and Master of Business Administration from The Ohio State University.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Information

This document contains forward-looking statements which may contain FNB's expectations or predictions of future financial or business performance or conditions, or otherwise anticipate the closing date of the proposed Transaction. This document/communication/information may also contain certain forward-looking statements, including certain plans, goals, projections and statements about the proposed Transaction, plans relative to the proposed Transaction, objectives, expectations and intentions regarding the proposed Transaction, the expected timing of the completion of the proposed Transaction, and other statements that are not historical facts. Forward-looking statements, that do not describe historical or current facts, typically are identified by words such as, “believe”, “plan”, “expect”, “anticipate”, “intend”, “outlook”, “estimate”, “forecast”, “will”, “should”, “project”, “goal”, and other similar words and expressions. These forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties. The forward-looking statements are intended to be subject to the safe harbor provided under Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the Private Securities Litigation Act of 1995.

In addition to factors previously disclosed in FNB’s reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the following risk factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from forward-looking statements or historical performance: potential risks and challenges attendant to the successful conversions of core data systems; difficulties and delays in successfully integrating the FNB and Yadkin businesses or fully realizing cost savings and other benefits; business disruption following the completion of the transaction; changes in asset quality and credit risk; uncertainty regarding the policies and strategies of the Presidential Administration, which may result in unanticipated changes in general economic, political and regulatory environment or industry conditions; uncertainty in U.S. fiscal policy and monetary policy, including interest rate policies of the Federal Reserve Board (FRB); the inability to sustain revenue and earnings growth; changes in interest rates and capital markets; inflation; customer acceptance of FNB products and services; potential difficulties encountered by FNB in expanding into a new and remote geographic market; customer borrowing, repayment, investment and deposit practices; customer disintermediation; the introduction, withdrawal, success and timing of business initiatives; the inability to realize cost savings or revenues or to implement integration plans and other consequences associated with mergers, acquisitions and divestitures; the impact, extent and timing of technological changes, capital management activities, competitive pressures on product pricing and services; ability to keep pace with technological changes, including changes regarding maintaining cybersecurity; success, impact and timing of FNB’s business strategies, including market acceptance of any new products or services; and implementation of FNB’s banking culture, philosophy and strategies.

Additional risks include the nature, extent, timing and results of governmental and regulatory actions, examinations, reviews, reforms, regulations and interpretations, including those related to the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform Act and Consumer Protection Act and Basel III regulatory or capital reforms (including DFAST stress-testing protocols), as well as those involving the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC), FRB, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), and Consumer Financial Protection Board (CFPB); the possibility that the proposed Transaction does not close when expected or at all because required regulatory or other approvals are not received or other conditions to the closing are not satisfied on a timely basis or at all; the possibility that the anticipated benefits of the proposed Transaction are not realized when expected or at all, or the transaction is delayed or does not close due to unanticipated circumstances, including as a result of the impact of, or problems arising from, the integration of the two companies or as a result of the economic conditions and competitive factors in the areas where FNB does business; the possibility that the proposed Transaction may be more expensive to complete than anticipated, including as a result of unexpected factors or events; diversion of management’s attention from ongoing business operations and opportunities; potential adverse reactions or changes to business or employee relationships, including those resulting from the announcement or completion of the proposed Transaction; and other factors that may affect future results of FNB. There is no assurance that any of the risks, uncertainties or risk factors identified herein is complete and actual results or events may differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements contained in this document.

Additional factors that could cause results to differ materially from those described above can be found in FNB's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, which is on file with the SEC and available in the "Investor Relations & Shareholder Services" section of FNB's website, www.fnbcorporation.com, under the heading "Reports and Filings" and in other documents FNB files with the SEC.

All forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made and are based on information available at that time. FNB assumes no obligation to update forward-looking statements to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements were made or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events except as required by federal securities laws. As forward-looking statements involve significant risks and uncertainties, caution should be exercised against placing undue reliance on such statements.
