First National Bank Celebrates a Decade of Achievement as One of Pittsburgh's Top Workplaces

PITTSBURGH, PA – October 19, 2020 – First National Bank, the largest subsidiary of F.N.B. Corporation (NYSE: FNB), announced it has been named a Greater Pittsburgh Area Top Workplace by the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette for the tenth consecutive year.

The Top Workplaces list is determined solely by employee feedback and is compiled by Energage, a leading research firm that specializes in organizational health and workplace improvement. FNB was recognized in the large company category.

“It is a special honor to receive this milestone achievement in our headquarters city despite the many challenges presented by the global pandemic,” said Vincent J. Delie, Jr., Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of F.N.B. Corporation and First National Bank. “FNB’s employees make it possible for us to provide meaningful support for our customers, communities and each other. This recognition is further validation of our commitment to investing in a workplace that prioritizes our values, which translates to a positive impact in the regions we serve.”

The latest ranking by the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette brings FNB to a total of nearly 30 workplace awards in the different markets it serves.

In recent months, FNB’s culture has been highlighted by a compassionate response to the pandemic that has resulted in recognition by multiple sources. Most recently, FNB was one of only ten institutions in the country Greenwich Associates named a Q22020 Standout Commercial Bank Amid Crisis, based solely on client feedback.
